GENERAL MANAGER

CANADA GAMES AQUATIC CENTRE SAINT JOHN, NEW BRUNSWICK

The Canada Games Aquatic Commission requires a general manager for the Canada Games Aquatic Centre.

The General Manager will be responsible for the general operation of the Canada Games Aquatic Centre, built to accommodate the aquatic component of the 1985 Canada Summer Games. The facility, located in the heart of Saint John, New Brunswick's largest city with a population of 135,000 in the city and surrounding area, includes a 50-metre pool designed for competitive swimming, water polo, synchronized swimming and recreational and advanced instructional swimming programs. Also available within the complex is a leisure pool with slide and center island and tiny tot pool. The diving component includes 1 meter, 3 meter and 5 meter diving levels. The fitness area includes a weight and exercise center with attending lockers, showers, sauna and whirlpool, etc.

The complex employs a staff of 45 permanent employees and 60-80 part-time and seasonal employees.

This position will be of interest to those energetic, dynamic and innovative service professionals with a high level of achievement in marketing, consumer service and facility coordination and development.

Applicants will possess a University degree in Recreation Administration or related discipline and proven appropriate management experience with progressing responsibilities.

The salary will be negotiated along with an attractive benefit package.

Apply in writing with full particulars, including salary history and a photo by September 15, 1993 to:

AMEY, LIMPERT TOP WOMEN; VonRICHTER, CLEVELAND TOP MEN; CALGARY TOP TEAM

EDMONTON—After four days of competition, the 572 swimmers from over 106 clubs (including one from Hungary and one from the USA) gave indication that a changing of the guard is underway. Although a number of veterans held on to previous titles, a number of fresh young faces occupied many positions on the podium.

Perhaps the brightest prospect is Jessica Amey, 16, UCSC, (who just missed an Olympic berth last year) emerging as the high scoring winner with golds in the 50 free, 50 back, 50 fly, and silvers in the 100 back, 100 fly.

Other standouts: Marianne Limpert, 20, NYAC winner of the 100 free, 200 IM, silver in the 200 free; Joanne Malar, 17, HWAC, winner of the 200-400 free, silver in the 400 IM and bronze in the 200 IM. Owen VonRichter, 18, PEPSI, displayed versatility and made a race of every event he competed in: winning gold in the 200 free and 400 IM, silvers in the 400 free, 200 IM and a bronze in the 200 fly. Jon Cleveland, 22, UCSC, had the top performance of the meet with his 2:14.81 in the 200 breast, added golds in the 50-100 breast. Robert Braknis, 20, CAC, golds in the 50-100 back, silver in the 50 free.

Youngest winner: 14-year-old Melissa Knox, PDSA, in the 800 free. Oldest medalist: Vlastimil Cerny, 30, CASC, with a bronze in the 50 free.

A welcome development is the intense rivalry among breaststrokers Guylaine Cloutier and Nathalie Giguere; flyers Sarah Evanetz and Jessica Amey and, what always produces world class swims, the races among IM swimmers Marianne Limpert and Nancy Sweetnam. These match-ups are adding excitement and will keep everyone striving to higher levels.

The University of Calgary took all team titles—men's, women's and combined—to emerge once more as the top club team.

Jon Cleveland, 22, UCSC — Marco Chiesa

Records were in short supply. Only the women's 4x50 medley fell as UCSC bettered an eight year old mark.

41 swimmers earned a spot on the Pan Pacific team as the first two in each event gained automatic berths along with the top four in the freestyle relay events. The lack of times standards didn't help performance levels.

The welcome sponsorship of world leading graphics software developer Corel Corporation was an added plus.

The host club and Alberta Section put on a terrific effort and the meet ran smoothly.

The prompt annoucement of the Pan Pac team at the end of the competition and Club Grant winners was welcome.

On behalf of swimmers, coaches, and the many officials a word of thanks to Ollie Currie, of the host club EKSC, and her crew who provided the much needed experience and know-how to put on such a massive undertaking. ■

LIMPERT MAKES IT TWO IN A ROW

Jacynthe Pineau,19, EXCEL, wins fifth title with 2:16.62 since the 1990 Summer Nationals (2:14.63) in the 200 fly. It was her slowest winning effort ...

Bold = 50 m pool, light = 25 m pool

Eddie Parenti, 20, GO, wins first gold in 200 fly—slowest winning time since 1988. Parenti won silver in 1990-91-92.

Jessica Amey, 16, UCSC, wins second gold in 50 free (shared one with runner-up Shannon Shakespeare at last year's Summer Nationals when Olympic Team was away). Her 26.16 is the fastest winning time since 1986.

Dean Kondziolka, 21, LASC, wins seventh title in 50 free since 1990 Summer Nationals ... considers Edmonton pool slow ... had a faster time 22.90 at the FISU Games, in Buffalo where he won bronze.

One of the classic rivalries of Canadian swimming is the duel between Nancy Sweetnam,19, LUSC and Marianne Limpert, 20, NYAC in the 200 IM. The outcome always results in world-class performances. It was no different at this meet. Limpert's 2:15.53 was the top performance (950 points) of the first night's final. It's the second time in as many weeks that Limpert beats Sweetnam (they went 1-2 at the FISU Games).

The chart only shows shaved and tapered swims at season's end. There are other occasions when these swimmers have met but they were in-season, when preparation may not have been the same.

200 IM winner Curtis Myden, 19, UCSC with 2:03.75, is slower than his bronze medal swim at last year's Olympic Trials (2:03.20). Gary Anderson, 23, NYAC failed to win a medal for the first time since 1988, after winning seven national long course titles.

Melissa Knox, 14, PDSA, youngest gold medal winner on the first night with her 8:51.47 beat out Nikki Dryden, 18, IS and team-mate Michelle Sallee, 19, PDSA. Ironically Sallee holds the fastest time for 14-year-olds with 8:44.45 from 1988.

Bill Lomax, 21, EKSC, won his first gold in the 1500 free with 15:44.83, has bronze medals in the same event from 1992 Winter and 1992 Summer (without Olympic team in attendance). Lomax's win represents the 22nd gold in this event for the Keyanos since 1979, when the club first showed up at national meets. Other Keyano winners for the 1500 were Peter Szmidt, (8) Harry Taylor, (11) and Chris Bowie (2).

One record is bettered during the first day as UCSC's 4x50 Medley Relay posted a 1:56.44, bettering the old record of 1:57.51 by Etobicoke in 1985. This was the only record-setting performance of the four day competition.

Team score after one day: UCSC 321; NYAC 158.5 and PDSA 134. ■

DAY 2 Thursday, July 29

GIGUERE OVER CLOUTIER

Marianne Limpert won her first title in the 100 free. It was a solid performance of 56.87 (but off her 56.29 Canadian Record, set earlier in July at the FISU Games leading off the 4x100 free relay). Marianne has now become an indispensable member of the Canadian team, able to contribute both individual swims and key relay legs. Going into her 2nd year Physical Education at University of Toronto and fighting off a cold during these nationals, "I'm learning to cope with adversity", Marianne said. "I had a difficult winter with assorted illnesses. The FISU Games were a great experince—thanks to the relaxed coaching style of Byron MacDonald (Head Coach of the team). I'm looking forward to Japan and expecting to have a great meet."

With the top four spots gaining Pan Pac berths, the 100 free is always an exciting race. Of the 16 men with second swims in the 100 free, only five of them improved on their preliminary time. Stephen Clarke, 20, COBRA qualified first with 51.32. In winning the final he just touched out Dean Kondziolka, 21 ,LASC, with 51.64 to the runner-up 51.68. Clarke, disappointed with his time, is aiming to perform better in Japan, especially in the 100 fly which he now considers his strongest event.

In what has become a rather bitter rivalry among Quebec's best two swimmers—Nathalie Giguere, 20, Universite Laval in Ste-Foy, and Guylaine Cloutier, 21, LAVAL, from the Montreal area suburb—the breaststroke specialists have been conducting a veritable show-down for supremacy every time they meet head-on.

After three consecutive wins for Cloutier, including the finals at last summer's Olympics, Giguere won one. Cloutier took this very seriously and failed to show for the post race medal presentation, where she would have picked up the bronze, as Lisa Flood, 21, UNATT (training now in Ft.Lauderdale) took the silver.

1989	Commonwealth Trials	2:31.40 Nathalie Giguere,gold	2:37.34 Guylaine Cloutier,silver
1990	Commonwealth Games	2:32.16 Nathalie Giguere, (gold)	2:32.91 Guylaine Cloutier, (silver)
1991	World Championships	2:31.14 Guylaine Cloutier, (4th final)	2:34.33 Nathalie Giguere, (consol)
1991	Winter Nationals	2:29.03 Nathalie Giguere,silver	2:29.74 Guylaine Cloutier,bronze

1993	Summer Nationals	2:32.30 Nathalie Giguere,gold	2:33.90 Guylaine Cloutier,bronze
SCORE		GIGUERE 6	CLOUTIER 4

New top performance for the competition as Jon Cleveland, 22, UCSC had a winning time in the 200 breast of 2:14.81, gets him 958 points.

In the men's 800 free, which was a time final, during the final heat Jaret Abel, 19, EKSC, after finishing 8th in the 1500 free, went all out to win the 800, taking the lead from the 300 through to the 750 only to have, Dave McLellan and Liam Weseloh go by him on the last length—McLellan receiving the accolades and the TV interview. But hold on. swimming during the afternoon, Greg Streppel, 25, Island Swimming, posted the fastest time, with 8:16.60 to McLellan's 8:18.60.

Streppel is better know as a 25K open-water specialist and has been itching to win at a shorter distance. Since he's been selected to Canada's team for the 25K Pan Pacs he'll forfeit this opportunity in the 800 at Kobe. Streppel had his best Nationals and each day, as the distances dropped, his placing improved. He even qualified for the big final in the 200 free. Of course, he's got to be the fittest athlete at the meet. Greg does a 9000 metre swim (6x1500) weekly training set. He tries to average 17K daily in workouts. And the best is yet to come. Over-distance specialists in most sports such as marathon running and cycling are mostly in their 30's. Greg is 25 and entering 2nd year Pharmacy at UBC.

Pointe Claire won the women's 4x200 free relay with 8:25.60 but Calgary's winning the men's relay (7:38.16) extended their consecutive win streak to 12, going back to the 1988 Winter Nationals.

Team Score after two days: UCSC 567; PDSA 308.5 and NYAC 285.5 ■

DAY 3 Friday, July 30

VonRICHTER'S NIGHT

Owen VonRichter, 18, PEPSI finally wins a gold when it really counts. After missing the 92 Olympic Team, and suffering frustrating illnesses at the previous nationals, he's picked up his third medal of the championships (200 fly and 200 IM bronze). It was decidedly VonRichter's night as he pulled a major upset by winning the 400 IM over favourite Curtis Myden, whose consecutive win streak ends at four titles. VonRichter took the lead after the fly, and was just a stroke behind after the back and breast (Myden's strongest leg). Out of the turn at 300, he took the lead and was able hold off a fast closing Myden. It will give VonRichter a share of the individual high scoring award.

Joann Malar, 17, HWAC won the 200 free, moving up from second last winter. It was just a matter of stroke rate. Limpert, with a longer more relaxed stroke rate, was just out-touched by the higher stroke turnover of Malar.

Island Swimming just keeps turning out backstrokers. It is Suzanne Weckend's turn, winning the gold in 1:03.92; for the team, it was seven winners for the past 11 national meets (Anne Barnes 1, Nikki Dryden 5 and Weckend 2).

Robert Braknis winn his first gold in the 100 back with 56.99. The 20 year-old Chateauguay swimmer a first year criminalogy student at Florida State and coached by Lois Daiganeault, pulled an upset over veterans Gary Anderson and Raymond Brown.

Pacific Dolphins won the women's 4x100 free relay for the first time since 1979. University of Calgary won its 10th men's relay gold in this event since 1981.

Team scores after 3 days: UCSC 834; PDSA 435 and NYAC 420.5 ■

DAY 4 Saturday, July 31

BACK TO BACK GOLDS FOR PACIFIC DOLPHINS

The oldest winner, Kevin Draxinger,26, PDSA adds another 200 back title with a 2:01.85, after an extended layoff following the Olympics. It must have been just what what was needed. The winning time is not far off his Canadian record of 2:00.54 from 1991.

"I think it was a strong swim," said Draxinger, "I'm going to work through to the Commonwealth Games in Victoria next year and try to improve on the Barcelona (12th) experience. I know I can go a lot faster."

Inspired by that performance, in the next immediate event, Sarah Evanetz, 18, PDSA pulled the biggest upset of the meet with a stunning defeat over favoured Jessica Amey, whose 1:01.50 heat swim seemed to clinch her the gold. But Evanetz came on very strong on the second length and touched well ahead, with a personal best of 1:01.28 her first win at a national meet since the World Trials back in November 1990. For Amey it was a replay of the 1992 Olympic Trials where she qualified first only to be touched out during the finals and missed a berth on the team.

Guylaine Cloutier, 21, LAVAL — Marco Chiesa

"I knew I was second when I hit the wall at the 50 ... I was disappointed that I wasn't faster than in the morning," said Amey. "I guess that gives me something to improve on. I'd really like to take the time down close to the minute.

"With the 100 fly it always seems I go a bit slower at night. I don't know why, but I'm working on it. I get very psyched for the morning swim—which is important in international competition, to make sure you get into the finals ... I think I got ready too early."

Justin Finney, 19, PCSC, wins the 100 fly in 55.57 to 200 winner Eddie Parenti's 55.60. Stephen Clarke, with the fastest in-season performance from last June of 54.96 is third.

It was number 10 for Guylaine Cloutier, 21, LAVAL in the 100 breast. She has won that many national titles since 1986. This win was typical—take the lead early and hold off challenges from Lisa Flood and Keltie Duggan. The time is ordinary for her but winning is what this was about.

Justin Finney, 19, PCSC — Marco Chiesa

Jon Cleveland posted a 1:02.88 in the heats and with his improved front end speed (28.88 in winning the 50 breast) the aim was the get under 1:02 ... not at this meet. The final was an easy win but in a slower time of 1:03.27. Andrew Trussler takes the silver and gained a ticket to Japan after a bronze in the 200.

Another gold for Joanne Malar in the 400, after winning the 200 free. Holly McComb takes second spot and the trip to Japan. In the men's 400 free, Turlough O'Hare salvages a frustrating meet with a solitary gold in this event. Owen VonRichter battles for second and his fifth medal of the championships. ■

THE 'FREAK GENIUS' THAT MAKES TRUE CHAMPIONS

What is it that makes world champions? Are they the result of a specific swimming system? There's always been a tendency to ascribe success to clearly delineated factors. If we were to believe all we hear then it's almost for ambitious countries to possess great facilities, depth participation, four year plans, full state sponsorships, and all the other rigmarole that goes with synthesis.

There's always been a rush to climb on the bandwagon of the leading swimmers and swimming countries of the moment. And, to a certain extent, this is good, especially if the way others do it stimulates fresh thought, new avenues of action.

But I deplore the tendency to analyze, dissect, and reassemble the way its done elsewhere and present the "new" package as the answer to all that ails countries with sagging swimming egos.

Swimming, being technical (or seeming to be) has long lent itself to this predisposition—the readiness to file the 'answers' in neat pigeon holes.

You can't deny that better facilities, better coaching, and more talented swimmers should improve any nation's standards. But what about the great swimmers? What makes world champions? Talent alone? It's been said that "doing easily what others find difficult is talent; doing what is impossible for talent is genius."

I'm convinced that great champions have the touch of "genius". In swimming it's a "freak genius" because swimming is an adapted sport for humans. The Mary T. Meaghers, the Matt Biondis, the Kristen Ottos, and the Alex Baumanns have an amazing affinity for handling water effectively.

But achieving world supremacy is more than combining talent with hard work. It's more than just another formula—it's something that comes from the spirit in all the great swimmers I've known.

Is it the excitement of the occasion, an emotional uplift? No, it's something creative.

It's not only a talent but an instrument of physical expression. Combine it with flashes of spirit and it results in sheer artistry, grace, poetry of motion, supreme dignity of performance.

While humans still swim and are not supplemented by robots, the drive, spirit, "life force", call it what you will, will always mark the difference between mediocrity and the scintillating performances of the great.

Synthetic formulas are all very well. But don't forget the human personality when you make your plans.

Don't depersonalize sport.

After all, it's the Meaghers, the Biondis, the Ottos the Baumanns, the great personalities, that make a sport like swimming flourish and grow.

TRUDY DEFIED ODDS IN EPIC SWIM

Sixty-seven years ago this month, Gertrude Ederle (pronounced "Edderlee") became the first female to swim the English Channel

It was the largest sports trophy I had seen. Next to it sat a slightly deaf middle-aged lady who tilted her head when people stopped to talk to her. I didn't know then that I was looking at the famous Wrigley Trophy and it's winner, the great Gertrude Ederle.

But let me start my story at the beginning. The year was 1952 and American Olympic Coach, Bob Kiputh, had invited me to join a live TV show from station WOR, New York, in aid of funds to send the American team to that year's Olympics in Helsinki.

As we stepped off Broadway into the studio, I was dazzled by an amazing array of sports stars, past and present. They were all there, it seemed. Jesse Owens, Joe Louis, Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney, Johnny Weissmuller, Ethelda Bleibtrey, John Marshall, Jim McLane, "Buster" Crabbe, Ann Curtis ... and so on and on.

But it was the quiet lady with the big trophy who interested me most. She sat there with an attitude that seemed to say: "This isn't really for me. I've had my moment of glory so why dwell on it. ..."

However, her feat is still recognized as one of the greatest in the history of "firsts" in human physical achievements; in the same category as Hillary and Tensing on Mt. Everest or Bannister and the four-minute mile.

Yes, it's a fact that when Gertrude Ederle, daughter of a German-American butcher, set out on August 6, 1926, to swim from Cap Gris-Nez, France, to Kingsdown, England, the London Daily News published an article the same day decrying the "general lack of skill, speed, and endurance" of women athletes.

According to famous sports journalist Paul Gallico, "the gent who wrote these words probably spent the next 24 hours eating them without cream or sugar."

Gertrude's tacit reply was to not only conquer the Channel, but clip 2 hours 23 minutes off the fastest time recorded by a male swimmer, Charles Toth of Boston.

Back to Gallico, "Conquest of that twenty-five mile strip of treacherous tides and roaring currents has lured swimmers for the past seventy years, and who knows what attempts were made that remain unrecorded? Five persons swam the Channel before Gertrude Ederle. But they were all men. No women had ever accomplished it. Several had tried but failed."

Trudy took 14 hours and 31 minutes to swim the Channel but, during that time, she must have lived several lifetimes.

According to Gallico, "Trudy went through hell. The story of her crossing is a classic of grit, stamina and guts. Frozen, exhausted and battered, sickened, she never once complained, and she never for a moment thought of giving up. She had to fight not only the sea and elements of the wind, rain and cold, but the contents of the sea, dangerous red jellyfish with long, stinging tentacles.

"At one point the sea was raging so furiously and buffeting her so badly that she was advised to give up lest she be injured. The English coast was three miles away. Pop Ederle called to her to ask her whether she wanted to quit. And out of the hissing spume of the stormy sea came her classic reply that was to ring around the world: "What for?"

And when it was all over, the 19-year-old girl was inundated with fame. She came home to one of the greatest New York ticker-tape welcomes of all time. She was given the Wrigley Trophy in recognition of her great and unexpected feat. Gertrude Ederle became the darling of sport's Golden Twenties.

But the night I saw her in New York, amid the glittering cavalcade of the sporting famous, the Wrigley Trophy could have been more dross brought along out of courtesy to show to the interested audience of a newer generation. To Gertrude 'Trudy" Ederle, now partially deaf from the battering she took from the waves, the giant trophy was just a dim reminder of another day, another age, when she set out to do something "to prove to myself it could be done." ■

DIGEST

World SC Championships Selection

To be eligible to compete a swimmer must be a finalist (top 8) at the 1993 Pan Pacific Championships. Men's 800 and Women's 1500 are not included. Additional swimmers may be selected (up to the maximum team size) based on the highest ranking (top 8) swimmers not on the team, provided the swim equals or betters the 12th place time from the 1992 Olympic Games. World Performance Charts will then be used to determine the ranking order of the swimmers up to the maximum team size total of 26 (13 men, 13 women).

Relays will be considered if they rank 6th or better in the World as of Aug. 31, 1993, and subject to overall team size.

Commonwealth Games Selection

The 1994 Commonwealth Games overall team size will be 39 (18 women and 21 men) Trials will be held in Victoria, BC, March 5-9, 1994. The competition takes place in Victoria, August 19-24, 1994

Selection Criteria:

All eligible individual winners at the selection meet will be automatically selected.

The top four (4) eligible swimmers in the men's and women's 100 and 200 freestyle events will be automatically selected.

Second and third place eligible swimmers will be selected based on Commonwealth rankings, 3 per country, as of October 31, 1993 to a maximum allowable team size of 18 women and 21 men. In the event of a tie, the highest ranked eligible swimmer according to the 1993 World Long Course Performance Chart will be selected.

Any unresolved tie will be broken by agreement of the swimmers involved, if possible, if not, then by a swim-off.

Keep track of your workouts

An excellent Training Diary has been developed in Calgary. The 400 page wire-bound book has space for daily workouts, food intake record, nutrition information, mental training information, charts for keeping track of races, tests and goals, provincial and national standards, nutrient composition tables. Individual copies are $24/copy, 11-24 books are $22/copy, over 25 copies are $20/copy. To order:

End of an era

The Edmonton Keyano Swim Club is pleased to announce that Mr.Don Packer has accepted the position of Head Coach.

Packer held the position of Assistant Coach with EKSC for the past nine years. During this time he was responsible for coaching swimmers from the age group through to the National qualifying level. He has coached teams at national and international events, dating from to the 1976 Olympics up to the 1991 Pan Pacific Championships.

Packer's own competitive career began at age 10 with the Edmonton East End Boys Club, moving to water polo at age 14. He represented Canada at the 1967-71 Pan Ams Games and 1972 Olympics as a water polo player.

EKSC iw pleased to to have secured his services. He will replace current Head Coach Dave Johnson, who will be moving to Ottawa to become SNC's Coach-High Performance Services effective October 1.

"My mandate is to work with the swimmers ranked 25th in the world and higher," said Johnson. "To focus on their programs and offer them support and services they might need.

"The primary effort would be to get kids on the medal podium. Mark Tewksbury worked for years to make the jump; his coach Deryk Snelling did a fantastic job, but he'll be the first to tell you the resources of his club were tapped to the limit."

Club Grant: simple and effective

Swimming/Natation Canada unveiled its 1993-94 Club Grant Program at Summer Nationals.

Its purpose is to provide support, encouragement, and recognition for those SNC clubs producing fast swimming.

Guiding principles:

- Recognize fast swimming.
- Reward a limited number of clubs according to team standings at summer nationals based on Olympic individual and relay events. (Each season the long course competition chosen for the club grant will be designated. For 1994 it will be the Commonwealth Trials in early March.)
- Reward all clubs which have any individual swimmer point scores of 935 male, 915 female, or higher on the current World Performance Charts.
- Make it simple and easily understood.
- Minimal obligations for recipient clubs.
- Promote the concept of "prepare, get up and race on a specific day."
- Swimmers must be eligible to score club points as per SNC rules. The individual grant portion is accessible only to swimmers who are eligible to represent Canada at major international events.
- For individual scoring, all eligible swims will be counted. For team scoring, all individual swims shall count, plus one relay per club event.

Total available funds: $147,000 to be distributed as follows: Club Standings-$50,000; Individual Swims-$97,000.

Distribution for 1993 was as follows:

CLUB	Rank	Funds	Swims	Funds	TOTAL

BIG MEDAL HAUL FOR BEST SHOWING EVER

World University Games Buffalo'93

How successful was this year's Canadian Team at the World University Games (FISU) in Buffalo? It won more medals (15) and more gold (6) than any previous team.

In the very first event of the competition, Guylaine Cloutier upset favoured Olympic gold medal winner Elena Rudkovskaya, RUS, who finished third behind the Ukraine's Svetlana Bondarenko. Canada was on a roll that would not end until the final event—when the women's 4x200 free relay finished up with the gold medal after a USA disqualification.

When you're hot, you're also lucky.

It started out as the "who cares" Games as even the mayor of Buffalo was quoted as saying the city never should have bid for the Games. There was no major TV network coverage, and local interest was poor until the event actually got underway. Other than a probable loss of a few hundred thousand dollars, the Games were well run, with 73 countries in attendance, including first time participants from Lebanon. The swimming events had 334 entries.

Canada's most successful individual was Turlough O'Hare, who picked up two individual golds for the 400-800 free. His strategy was simple: stay with the leaders until the half-way point, move away by the three-quarter mark and then control the finish. "I'm extremely happy with the golds," O'Hare said, "I know I can go faster, as both races were paced to go for gold and not worry about the time."

O'Hare moved to Toronto this winter to train under Byron MacDonald, who said, "Turlough had never won gold internationally so this was a very big opportunity for him and he responded with great swims."

He was actually in the hunt for his third gold only to be thwarted by another Canadian success—Calgary's Rob McFarlane. After leading off Canada's 4x200 free relay with a personal best by two seconds (1:51.56), McFarlane went by O'Hare who moved too quickly off the final turn and ran out of gas. McFarlane picked up a silver, and O'Hare the bronze, as France's Yann deFabrique took the gold.

4 x 100 free relay—the mad dashers Lewko Hryhorijiw

McFarlane was a doubtful starter in the meet as he had a sore shoulder, and only on the evening of the relay was it decided he could swim. Later in the meet, he swam his best 200 fly, just missing a medal.

Another medal winner was 'Kondo' Kondziolka in the 50 free. "I expected to go faster from the training I've been doing," he said. "I'm pleased with the bronze medal."

Most disappointing for Canada's team was the absence from the podium of Calgary's Jon Cleveland and Curtis Myden, who were not rested for the competition, opting to swim through—a missed opportunity, and an odd decision given the level of the competition.

The three most experienced Canadian women contributed most of the other fireworks. Cloutier added a bronze in the 200 breast and a silver in 4x100 medley relay. Nancy Sweetnam made it look easy, despite a slight groin pull, winning gold in the 400 IM after leaving the field well behind in her breaststroke leg. She was a finalist in both 100-200 breast and battled Marianne Limpert in the 200 IM. "The rivalry between Nancy and I is a great motivator," Limpert said. "It helps both of us to swim faster."

Limpert's strong freestyle leg won her the 200 IM and allowed her to break the Canadian record on the 4x100 free relay leading off with a 56.29. Her lead-off in the 4x200 free relay of 2:02.29 would have won gold in the individual event, but since both 200's (free and IM) were on the same day she opted to bypass the freestyle.

"Marianne should do very well internationally in the 200 free, after she gains some experience," MacDonald said.

The women's 4x100 missed upseting the Americans by only 2/10ths as the Canadians bettered last year's Olympic Team's time by over a second.

Debbie Gaudin won an individual bronze in the 100 fly and another one in the medley relay.

Although American swimmers took the most medals their performance was somewhat below expectations. China only sent four competitors, but Jingyi Le looks like a potential world beater in the sprints. Cuban swimmers upset favoured Americans in backstroke (Rodolfo Falcon) and breaststroke (Mario Gonzalez).

BACKWASH

Backwash features short clips, gossip, letters and opinion. Contributions are welcomed. Now for the rumours behind the news.

Mad dashers in Buffalo: At the FISU Games, the Canadian women's 4x100 free relay marched on for the final wearing plastic see through raingear (safe swimming eh...) which was part of the regular team issue. It caused a sensation and really set the fashion statement of the competition. Didn't hurt lead-off swimmer Marianne Limpert either as her 56.29 set a new Canadian record for 100 free ...

Tonsils can stay Bill Lomax national champion in the 1500 free, was scheduled to have tonsillitis surgery the week after nationals. With a trip to Japan upcoming his family doctor advised postponement to early September as it's a simple procedure that can be done any time — hardly worth giving up a chance to compete in Kobe, and pick up a few tips from the likes of Kieren Perkins.

A new Australian Rose Hungarian former world record holder for the 100 breast Norbert Rozsa ("rose" in Hungarian) has moved to Perth, Australia, where he's already received landed immigrant status and will be eligible for citizenship in two years, just in time to help his adopted country at the Atlanta Olympics.

Substance abuse: Polish breaststroker Alicja Peczak underwent a routine drug test at her nationals early in June. In addition to the usual urine test a blood sample was also taken. It showed unusually high testosterone levels. The swimmer asked for a second test wich proved to be negative. Now it has been announced that the initial two year suspension has been reduced to two months.

Cat out of the Bag: At the Gold Medal Clinic last May in Hawaii, hosted by the World Swimming Coaches Association, coaches of Olympic gold medal winners lectured, and a Chinese coach describing different training phases decribed one as Anabolic Training ... any wonder we're all suspicious of the sudden emergence of Chinese women to prominence.

Editor: I wonder if it is possible to compile an international age group ranking (50 m) on a regular basis. I would be interested in the following ages 14/15, 16/17, 18/19 for boys and 12/13, 14/15 and 16/17 for girls.

The reason for my interest, and that of other European coaches, is that we have an annual European Junior Championships in July/August and we would like to compare the performances of the Europeans with those of other swimmers in the world.

I would also like to promote the idea of a Junior World Championships Boys 18/19 and Girls 16/17, instead of ever more senior level competitions like World Cups and World Short Course Championships in addition to the traditional World, Olympic and regional Champs. (Europe, Pan Pacific, Pan Americam, Asia etc.)

In Germany, we've come to realize that we need to do something different to motivate young swimmers to stay in the game, this might be one solution!

Niels E.Bouws, National Coach, Heidelberg, Germany

No gender-equity for Commonwealth Team. With a team size of 39 (21 men, 18 women) the missing three women's positions have been allocated to the women's synchro team. With exactly the same number of events for men and women, it's hardly fair.

Sucess breeds success: When Canadian rowers came back from Barcelona last summer with five Olympic medals, four of those gold, there was bound to be an increase in rowing club membership and interest. Actually a country-wide boom is underway. There has been a 35% jump in Rowing Canada membership and expectations are for a doubling by year end. 14 new rowing clubs have been established during the past two years bringing the total to 78 across the country.

New sponsorship deals have also been made as companies like to associate with world-class teams. An innovative athlete identification and development plan established in 1990 is paying off. Canada took medals, five of them gold, in all 13 events at the World University Games. It pays to strive to be successful.

Disorder at Nationals: Complaints on deck during Summer Nationals regarding the order of events were growing daily. It seems that ganging up of the distance events (800 + 1500) on the first two days was part of the difficulty. The 4x200 free relay on the second day added to the problem—it finished off some freestylers. The scoring of the stroke 50's distorted club and individual high point scores—they are not international events and have not improved the stroke 100's. Curiously the event order at the Pan Pacific Championships is a modified version of the Canadian 4-day program in use for over a decade, which the new event order replaced.

Another one bites the dust: UCLA will drop men's swimming due to mounting fiscal difficulties, after the completion of the 1993-94 season. Also cut, men's and women's gymnastics.

Summer shines no more: American superstar Summer Sanders has retired. Winner of gold (200 fly) silver (200 IM) and bronze (400 IM) at Barcelona Olympics she swam 59.83 for 100 fly at US Swimming's springs nationals this year.

Change as good as a rest: Keltie Duggan, 22, has switched to the University of Calgary, and won the 50 breast at Summer Nationals, and won a bronze in the 100.

"I had a really rough Olympic year (1992)," Duggan told Laurie MacFayden of The Edmonton Sun, after the long-time Edmonton Keyano swimmer moved to Calgary and coach Deryk Snelling in April of this year.

"1992 was horrific. I was busy with school, and not eating well, swimming just wasn't my focus. I started swimming in Calgary with my boyfriend ... and found it a nice change. It got me re-motivated."

Her career peaked in 1989-90 (Commonwealth gold medal winner for the 100). But knee surgery in 1991 sidelined her.

"My career basically went down the tubes ... but it's starting to be fun again.

"I panicked after the surgery; tried to do too much. I really have no plans beyond these nationals."

Remember ... It's not true until it has been officially denied.

CECIL COLWIN'S SWIMMING HISTORY

HOW COACH BEN FRANKLIN COAXED HIS PUPILS INTO THE DELAWARE

Dr. Benjamin Franklin, early American statesman, printer, author, publisher, inventor, scientist, and diplomat, was probably also America's first swimming coach. He would ask his pupils to plunge under water and try to retrieve eggs which he had thrown into shallow water. In this way, he encouraged his pupils to discover how "the water buoys you up against your inclination. Thus you feel the power of the water to support you and learn to confide in its power."

I can just imagine coach Ben going down to the Delaware, unpolluted then, with a basket of eggs to get the locals water-borne. Dr.Franklin's keen injunctions were followed, however, by a vogue of "Bath Masters" and self-styled "Professors du Natacion."

In 1797, one Oronzio de Bernardi published details of his system of "upright swimming" in a book with the imposing title of "Arte de Nadar Compendiade del que Escribio en Italiano."

Believe it or not, his pupils were claimed to progress in upright position for several miles after only a couple of day's coaching.

Around 1817, General Pfuel of Berlin produced his celebrated treatise which introduced a system of "drilling" for swimming. Swimming classes were sorted into groups of three. One boy would bend over on all fours while the next boy lay across the first boy's back practicing the swimming stroke, and the function if the third boy as to steady the second boy in case he fell of the first boy's back. Got it?

So much for General Pfuel's foolish capers. Now for a look at the methods used in British public schools in the days of yore.

At Clifton, J.J. Sheasby, the swimming instructor, was one of the institutions of the school, "There was keen rivalry to see who could be the first boy in the water. To be the last boy was another distinction keenly fought for." A two-way race?

According to Mr. C. Dudfield Willis, captain of the Otter Swimming Club in 1890, "successful competitors ran the risk of receiving a flick from Sheasby with a wet towel, which, if successful, was remembered for the rest of the day.

"However, he always gave us a sporting chance, and was deservedly popular, a popularity he enhanced by never reporting a boy without sufficient reason."

Over at Repton, there seemed an ulterior motive behind the aquatic activities of their afficionados. According to Mr. F.G.J. Ford, the old Cambridge cricketer from 1880 to 1886, "we bathed in the Trent below Burton, from which source we got the full benefits (!) of the breweries at times. The cricket XI did not bathe the day before the match." Method in their madness?

At Eton, "swimming was a favourite amusement taught by certain 'cads' who, in a more informal fashion, took new boys out in a boat and threw them overboard.

"George Selwyn, then private tutor to Lord Powis, and afterwards Bishop of Melanesia and of Lichtfield, was an Eton swimmer of most remarkable skill. One of Selwyn's recorded feats was taking a running header and diving across the river at Upper Hope."

Unfortunately, the records don't describe fully how he arrived at the other side. This could make the most interesting reading. Probably, at Upper House, it was better to travel hopefully than to arrive. ■

STOP THE GOGGLE FITTING GUESSING GAME!

Rowdy Gaines

Sprinting...one last flip turn...push off the wall...then.....my goggles fill with water!

Tired of leaking goggles? Concentrating on goggles instead of performance?

Leader goggles not only offer the best Anti-Fog treatment, they are also contoured to be watertight. Because every human eye socket is unique in shape, Leader solved the fitting guessing game by offering goggles contoured for the human race. Thanks to the R.O.S.E.S. (Round, Oval, Shaped, Eye, Socket)
